Dear Mr. Merrill -,

I am enclosing letter from Mr. Nutting's attorneys which speaks for itself.

Mr. Clemenens came to Walnut Hill a few weeks ago and I gave him what was in Mr. Nutting's locker. The letter is for your files.

The bill from Mr. Andersson was sent to me and I intended giving it to Mr. Whipple to send to you but he has been away duck hunting and then I guess he had to rest us as he missed last Sunday also.

Trusting this finds you-self and Mrs. Merrill in good health

I am Sincerely
D. P. Lambert.

Hope to see you at Walnut Hill soon -

Dear Sirs:

Will you kindly deliver to Mr. Eliot G. Clemons the Mann pressure barrel special rifle and 16 X Southers telescope sight, property of the Estate of Phillip A.
Nutting, late of Cambridge, deceased, which I understand are at the Club.

So far as I know, these are the only items belonging to the Estate at the Club. I should appreciate it if there is anything else of Mr. Nutting's that you deliver it to Mr. Clemons.

Very truly yours,

Bertha A. Chapman, Executrix
